

DAVE HICKSON

Former Everton Centre - Forward,

Dedicated to 'The Bravest of the Brave' - a Hero of the Fifties.

Dashing Dave of Everton, the 'Cannonball Kid' from Ellesmere Port.

A swashbuckling Centre-Forward, with quite phenomenal support.

Villa had him for a year, before he moved to Huddersfield Town.

Everton coursed through his veins, soon he was homeward bound.

He caused havoc to Defences, always led the Blues with Pride.

His Heading skill was stunning, when Good Crosses were supplied.

In the Goal went glorious Headers, or a powerful long range shot.

Cheering Crowds at Goodison, Dave gave it Everything he'd got.

Kid's Comic Stuff! Our Hero! So Courageous, Blonde and Tough.

Stood up Firmly for his Teamates, when Games got a little Rough.

Other Players are soon forgotten, their careers pass over in a Jiff,

Not Dave Hickson! He's remembered, for his Passion and his Quiff.

Copyright - John McEwan - Everton Poet