

HOWARD KENDALL

Former Everton Midfielder & Manager

An outstanding Player who became our most successful Manager

He came to Everton from Preston, Signed in March of Sixty-Seven.

Outstanding Relationship, He quoted, 'A Marriage made in Heaven'.

Was a vital piece in Catterick's jigsaw, to construct his Unique Trinity.

Alan Ball and Colin Harvey, his trusty Partners in that Midfield Three.

Relished any kind of Workload. He was very Skillful but could Scrap.

Deserved Football's Highest Honours, but didn't win an England Cap.

He won a League Medal in 1970, in that Midfield so Bright and Busy.

Kept Opponents chasing shadows, clever passing made them Dizzy.

Excelled later as Everton's Manager, cleared out Mediocrity and Less.

No Manager in its Long History, could match his Record of Success.

Delivered us Six Wembley Trips, the Cup Winners Cup was also won.

An FA Cup and Two League Championships, were to come to Everton.

Looked on course for Further Glory, but the Euro Ban left incomplete.

Legendary as a Player and Manager, with a Contribution hard to beat.

Copyright - John McEwan - Everton Poet