Former Everton & Wales Goalkeeper

In His Prime, Probably The World's Best Goalkeeper

Nineteen Eighty One he signed for Everton, Bury was his former Team.

Everton paid A Hundred & Fifty Thousand, for this Goalkeeper supreme.

Vital Saves were his great Trademark, he was just so difficult to beat.

In His Prime, this Brilliant Superstar, was among the Goalkeeping Elite.

Little wonder Forwards, in frustration, would shake their heads, Aghast.

Earned Ninety Two International Caps. His Record still stands for Wales.

A proud product of both his Country and Llandudno, where he hails.

Strength and Fitness played their part, plus his tremendous Dedication.

Outstanding performances earned him the 'World's Best' Accreditation.

Unconcerned with Adulation, he shrugged off lots of Fame and Praise.

The 'Football of the Year' in Eighty-Five, but he still remained unfazed.

Apppearance maybe was untidy, but no Smarter Keeper could be found.

Legendary at Everton, Played a Record Seven Hundred & Fifty Games.

Left his Legacy for Goalkeepers, as one of Football's Greatest Names.
