

RAY WILSON

Former Everton & England Left Full-Back

A Tribute to a World Cup Winner & F A Cup Winner in 1966

Ray's proper name was Ramon, from Huddersfield Town he came.

A superb England Full - Back, of average height and stocky frame

You rarely saw Right-Wingers shine, their opportunities were slim.

Quite often roles would be reversed, with the Winger marking him.

Wembley saw him Twice a Winner, in Glorious Nineteen Sixty Six.

In May, he helped Everton win the F A Cup, displayed all his tricks.

Late July, playing for England, he passed his Greatest Test of All.

So reliable on that Special Day, the English Nation All Stood Tall.

Overlapping was his great asset, could switch Defence into Attack.

No Team relaxed for a moment, against this legendary Left-Back.

Copyright - John McEwan - Everton Poet