

TOFFEE LADY

Everton's First Lady of Football

Dedicated to the Queen of all British Football Club Mascots

Toffee Lady, Mascot Queen, dressed in Everton White and Blue.
On Soccer Grounds round Britain, Crowds warmly Welcome you.
First one was Mother Noblett, from her quaint Shop in Village Street.
Fans wave at you, to catch your eye, hoping you will throw a sweet.
Equipped with your 'Goodies Basket' and Umbrella, by your side.
Everywhere we go, you represent our 'Grand Old Team' with Pride.
Long Blue Gown, White Bonnet, worn with Elegance and Grace.
All other Mascots bow to you, then and compete for Second Place.
Dixie was your Darling, while your countless 'Suitors' stood in line.
Your Mints and Toffees so enticing, Football's Sweetest Valentine.

Copyright - John McEwan - Everton Poet