

HERBERT HOWE

A Tribute to 'Herbert of Liverpool' the Hairdresser
a Generous, Self - Made, Successful Business Man

His 'sense of humour' is Infectious, to meet him really is a pleasure.
Everywhere round Merseyside, he is a real-life Liverpool Treasure.
Renowned for throwing 'Lavish Parties' or sailing on Cruise Ships.
But just as happy, down at the old 'Pier Head', eating Fish and Chips.
Each year, Young and Old will benefit, from his late Mother's Charity.
Rather than be lonely, enjoying Queenie's Christmas Dinner, free.
Those special 'Treats' for Children, Parties, Shows or Seaside Trips.
Rewarding notable Achievements or Compensating real Hardships.
Hard work has always been his Maxim, its earned him a Good Living.
Only Herbert shares his Wealth around, by being so Kind and Giving.
We may never know ALL the Good he does, such facts remain untold.
Except, beneath his sparkling waistcoats, there beats a Heart of Gold.

Copyright - John McEwan - Everton Poet